

“Just for Me,” Psalm 18

- This Psalm is also recorded in 2 Sam. 22:1-51.
- Similar outbreak of God’s anger in Habakkuk 3:3-16.
- Verses 25-26 are similar to 2 Tim. 2:11-13.
- Bennies of being in Yahweh? Verses 28-50, also Ps. 103 & 116:12-19.
- Verse 33 “hind’s feet” also in Hab. 3:19.
- William MacDonald sees Psalm 18 as talking about Jesus, citing 2 Thes. 1:7-8 and Rev. 19:13 & 15.

“Just For Me”

by Dan Hummel

Inspired by Psalm 18

Well I'm feelin' pretty low, I've got no place to go
I wake up in the morning not knowin' who I am.
Don't know why I'm livin' not sure what I believe in.
All the goods I'm storin' burn up in the end.
The end. The end. The end.
Can you hear it? Someone's calling all around me.

Chorus

When I look up into the skies, I see a sunset burning my eyes
Just for me, just for me, just for me.
When the road seems so very long, I get strength to carry on
Just for me, just for me, just for me.

Verse 2

Well there's noises all around me and sights to astound me,
It seems this world arena has its problems too.
Well I'm looking for solutions, got to get me movin',
Deus ex machina, no I want something true.
So true. So true. So true.
Can you hear me? Hear me calling all around you?

Chorus 2

When I look up into His eyes, I see lightning burning my eyes
Just for me, just for me, just for me.
When my load is weighing me down,
I hear a love that's calling freedom
Just for me, just for me, just for me.

Chorus 3

When I look up into the skies, I see a sunset burning my eyes
Just for me, just for me, just for me.
When I look up into His eyes, I see lightning burning my eyes
Just for me, just for me, just for me.
