

“Ding! Round 3,” Job 22-30, sans 29

July 14, 2024

Hartford Bible Church

Dan Hummel Summer Series “My Summer Job,” Part 4

1. Eliphaz responds (22)

Job’s responses to his visitors deny:

- (a) the premise of their implications,
- (b) their assertion that the wicked always suffer, and
- (c) that he himself was a deliberate transgressor.

Job answers false charges of hurting debtors, not giving food and water to those in need and abusing widows in 31:16-22.

Eliphaz twists Job’s words from 21:22,

Job said the opposite in 7:17-20.

2. Job responds (23-24)

3. Bildad responds (25)

4. Job responds (26-28, 30)

Chapter 30 Outline: Job is now disrespected socially (1-15), in pain physically (16-19), abandoned spiritually (20-23), opposed socially (30:24-26), and exhausted physically and emotionally (27-31).

“Ding! Round 3,” Job 22-30, sans 29

July 14, 2024

Hartford Bible Church

Dan Hummel Summer Series “My Summer Job,” Part 4

1. Eliphaz responds (22)

Job’s responses to his visitors deny:

- (a) the premise of their implications,
- (b) their assertion that the wicked always suffer, and
- (c) that he himself was a deliberate transgressor.

Job answers false charges of hurting debtors, not giving food and water to those in need and abusing widows in 31:16-22.

Eliphaz twists Job’s words from 21:22,

Job said the opposite in 7:17-20.

2. Job responds (23-24)

3. Bildad responds (25)

4. Job responds (26-28, 30)

Chapter 30 Outline: Job is now disrespected socially (1-15), in pain physically (16-19), abandoned spiritually (20-23), opposed socially (30:24-26), and exhausted physically and emotionally (27-31).